"Three times and out." The third trial of Curby arrested for assault on one Garba resulted yesterday in his acquittal.

Montgomery, charged on complaint of one Magnani, with assault, appeared in Justice Alvord's court this morning and plead guilty. He was fined $24.

The negro sketches now being given at the Elite Theater by Mr. Keane and Miss Rose are particularly good, and worthy of more than passing notice.

The only document filed for record to-day was a deed from T. L. Stiles to Sarah B. Stiles, all right title and interest to the Revenue mine Tombstone district.

The reported marriage of Pinky and Miss Lulu Rose we are sorry to say has not yet been recorded, and as we are informed, if Pinky waits until the young lady goes to Charleston and the "doubting" really occurs he will be grey headed.

The "unken eye," the palid complexion, the disfiguring eruptions on the face, indicate that there is something wrong going on within. Expel the lurking foe to health. Ayer's Sarsaparilla was devised for that purpose; and does it.

Iw.

Fred Parker, as previously stated, has removed his chop house from the Crystal Palace saloon to the building on Allen street formerly occupied by the Cuba Cigar store. The place has been elegantly fitted up, and parties desiring a square meal can be accommodated at short notice.

Phoenix Races.

The Gazette gives the following account of the recent races in that city. "An unusually large number of people were in attendance upon the races at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon, and were well entertained by the sport. The principal event of the day was the match between Wells' 'Sorrel Kate' and Carrington's 'Toby,' for $500 a side; distance one-half mile. 'Kate,' was the favorite in the pools, selling two for one. Both horses were in good condition and mounted by our best riders, Bob Schultz being astride of 'Kate,' and George Young riding 'Toby.' A pretty start was made and for the first-quarter the horses ran side by side. Then 'Kate' got down to business and came under the wire one length ahead; time 51. The mare had an easy race and was held back down the home-stretch. The result created considerable enthusiasm, and the admirers of 'Kate' have still greater faith in her running qualities after her performance of yesterday.

This race was followed by a half-mile dash for saddle horses; purse $50, offered by Kern & Baldwin of the Eclipse saloon. There were four entries, 'Sorrel John,' a horse recently from California, 'Sleepy Kate,' 'Gray Dick,' and a gray colt entered by Joe Wilson. This race was won by 'Sorrel John' without an effort, in 53 seconds.

After Geronimo.

House resolution 167. In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1886. Read twice, referred to the committee on Indian affairs, and ordered to be printed. Mr. Bean introduced the following joint resolution authorizing the President to offer a reward of twenty five thousand dollars for the killing or capturing of Geronimo, Apache chief.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, directed to offer a reward of twenty-five thousand dollars for the head of Geronimo, a chief of the Chiricahua Apaches; and the said sum of twenty-five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, and shall be paid by the President upon satisfactory evidence that the said Geronimo has been killed or captured, and if captured by other parties than United States troops, shall be delivered to the custody of said troops, subject to the order of the President; and the aforesaid reward shall be paid to any detachment of United States troops so killing or capturing said Geronimo, and shall be equally divided among them, rank and file.

Important to Stock Men.

U. S. Deputy collector, W. S. Orry of this place has received circular instructions from the Treasury Department notifying and making more explicit the rules governing the importation of breeding stock into the United States. The rule now is that all stock not capable of breeding shall pay duties and 50 per cent of all heifers from two years old and down to the age when they cannot subsist without suckling their mother shall pay regular duties. This is a matter of considerable importance to stock men, especially those engaged in the business of importing from Mexico. And when they purchase in Sonora they should not forget the new rules laid down by the government.—Star

For the finest Japan English breakfast, gunpowder, and other brands of teas, go to Herrera & McClure's Tea house, on Allen street. Mr. McClure has just returned from a business trip to San Francisco where he purchased for cash the finest teas and coffees to be obtained in the market.

Items about the court house are like hens' teeth, mighty scarce.

Mr. J. V. Vickers states that real estate matters are in statu quo.

The mercury took a tumble to-day, registering but 80 degrees as against 92 degrees yesterday.

A Scotch Verdict.

We publish, on the second page of to-day's Citizen, a Washington dispatch which discusses impartially and disinterestedly the circumstances attending the consideration by the committee the nomination of Mr. Zulick, to be Governor of Arizona. The telegram shows where all the opposition to the confirmation originated, and that it came from democrats and not republicans. The charges against Mr. Zulick, while not considered by the committee as fatal offenses in a democratic aspirant for position, were quite serious, and they were practically ignored and a sort of a Scotch verdict entered in his case—"not proven." Some of the thoughtless journals of the Territory have heralded the news of Governor Zulick's confirmation as a democratic triumph, but it is difficult to discern over whom the triumph was accomplished, unless it be over other democrats—a factional contest in which the republicans were disinterested spectators. They knew that whichever way the battle turned it brought no especial comfort to their party, and they really enjoyed the diversion of a little hair pulling in the democratic household. The act of rubbing a little salt on the bleeding wounds of the combatants attests the keen relish by the republicans of the burlesque tragedy, and was introduced in lieu of an encore, to prolong the play. But the curtain has been rung down, and the playwright Mr. Pherson, is satisfied with his humorous production, and we don't see any cause for unusual convulsions of nature or for checking the onward flight of time in consequence.—Tucson Citizen.

Please Ponder.

The following questions to Drum-Major Earle were handed into this office to-day with the request that we publish the same:

First—Name the member or members of the League that asked credit and you refused them.

Second—You admit that when you shut down the Luckaure mine you were indebted to your employees, and that you are still indebted to some of them. Why should the truth hurt?

Third—To show that you are incapable of drawing the distinction between violence and peaceable methods.

Fourth—The Southern people of this community will not thank you at this late day for charging them with treason, and comparing them with socialists, anarchists and communists, and saying that what was given to the former should be given to the latter. Both in the same boat, eh?

Real estate flying in all directions. The pumps on Contention hill are still stationary.

An incipient fire which was discovered in the Sunnyside Lodging house this morning, was extinguished without calling in the aid of the department.

And they do say that John Po Clum, will ere long be appointed Indian agent at the San Carlos. How hilarious this news must make the Democracy feel. Rahr! for the mugwump President.

The benefit tendered by the Tombstone Amateur association to Joe Bignon, the popular proprietor of the Elite Theatre, will take place at Schiefelin hall on Monday evening next. In addition to the Elite troupe, which comprises excellent talent, there will appear a host of talent, which has volunteered for the occasion. Among the volunteers are the Trevillian brothers, Gus Lee and Ben Woods the inimitable banjoints and a number of other star performers.

From Max Marks who arrived in camp to-day from the Palomitas custom house, it is learned that a courier reached there yesterday from Tuvelama, a camp near Altar, bringing the news that the Apaches had recently raided that section and killed a large number of persons. That in fact the whole country seemed to be alive with them. The killing so far, has mainly been carried on west of the Sonora railroad. Mr. Marks further states that Captain Hatfield and troop are indefatigable in their efforts to reach the hostiles. They are in the saddle day and night. The report that Don Jose M. Elias' horses were recently stolen by the renegades is not true.

Celebration in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO May 12—The anniversary of the federation of trades union of the state which was declared a legal holiday by Governor Stoneman was celebrated to-day by all the trades unions of the city and was generally received as a holiday by the banks, public offices and business firms. A picnic and entertainment at Woodward's gardens under the auspices of the federated trades filled the programme of the day. The leading feature of the celebration was a torchlight procession to night. A few hours before it started both sides of the thoroughfares along the route of the march were crowded with people as well as the windows and roofs of the buildings lining the streets. The procession started at about 8:30 p. m. and took over an hour to pass a given point. Fire works were discharged during the entire march by those in line and also by spectators from the windows and side walks and the pyrotechnic display with torches carried by the marchers served to brilliantly illuminate the entire route of the procession. The procession was reviewed by Governor Stoneman. The seaman's union which presented a remarkably fine appearance in sailor costumes were loudly cheered. The three masted schooner which they carried in line was a prominent feature of the parade.

The Commissioners Kick.

PRESIDENT May 12—Yesterday before Governor Zulick, the insane asylum directors put in a plea to jurisdiction and demurrer which was argued by Messrs Edwards and Henderson for respondents and A. C. Baker opposing counsel. At the conclusion of the argument this forenoon the governor informed the counsel he would announce his conclusion to-day at 10 a. m.

Senate.

WASHINGTON May 12—Hear presented a memorial of the republican central committee of Ohio, stating that the election of Payne to be United States senator was secured by bribery fraud and corruption and requesting that the senate investigate the matter. Referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

House.

WASHINGTON May 12—The special order for to-day was the consideration of the business reported from the committee on private land claims. The house after reading the journal went into a committee of the whole on the bills providing for the appointment of a commission to ascertain and settle private land claims in New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado.

The bill provides for the appointment of three commissioners who shall receive a salary of $5,000 each and serve for four years for the purpose of adjudicating Spanish and Mexican land claims in New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado. In deciding validity and claim the commission shall be governed by the provisions of the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo the laws of the United States and the customs of the government from which the claim is derived and the decisions of the United States supreme court.

On motion of Reagan of Texas an amendment was adopted providing that before the title to any claim shall be confirmed the claimant shall show that all taxes due territorial and municipal government have been paid.

On motion Hewitt of New York an amendment was adopted providing that whenever a claim is presented to the commission it shall be the duty of the commission before proceeding to hear the same to determine the extent thereof in numbers of acres, and all final decisions shall be limited by the preliminary determination and the commission shall not include in its determination any land in excess of the amount intended to have been granted in the original.

McAdoo of New Jersey, offered an amendment providing that no alien or person who is not a citizen of the United States shall acquire title to any land subject to the decision of the commission unless his right to the same was clearly proved by one of the treaties referred to in the bill. (Agreed to)

The committee then rose and the bill was passed.
